11.Problems and Challenges

1. Poor Mathematical basics and communication skill of the students from School level due to COVID.
2. Non-cooperation of weak students.
3. Irregularity of students to the class.
4. Unwillingness of slow learners in writing tests.
5. Easy going attitude of students.
6. Strength of students (UG and PG) is low compared to the past years.
7. Lack of willingness among the first years to pursue the course.
8. Boy-Girl relationship
9. Lack of interest among students for PG Mathematics

Steps taken to resolve them:

1. To overcome the challenge of shifting of first years from one department to the other and discontinuing from the course, the department organized a session motivating the students and creating interest towards the course which was coordinated by Rev. Dr. T. Sathinathan.
2. To teach them basic concepts of Mathematics in an informal way, the department organized two days workshop covering the very basic concepts.
3. The workshop was organized on hour basis with lectures, videos and worksheets were given to the students to know their level of understanding.
4. This workshop made a remarkable change in the attitude of the students towards their interest of studying Mathematics.
5. Conducted a Special programme on “Healthy Boy-Girl Relationship” to aware the students about the relationship.
6. Created a good impact about our college in the nearby colleges preferably for PG admissions.
7. Collected short videos from our reputed alumni and shared among our final year students to create interest for Higher studies in our campus.

Time: 2.15-3.30 pm

RESOURCE PERSON: Dr. Vijay Solomon, Assistant Professor, Department of Chemistry, Madras Christian College, Chennai

The lectures covered the following topics in quantum chemistry:

1. Particle in a 1D box
2. Particle in a 3D box

Dr. Vijay started with a brief overview of QM. Later he elaborated on the steps involved to set-up the problem of a particle in a 1D box and how one can solve the problem to arrive at the value of energy. On the second day of the lecture he solved some problems related to the 1D box. He later listed the steps involved in solving the problem of a particle in a 3D box. He also elaborated on some problems related to the topic and discussed the concept of degeneracy. The students participated enthusiastically.

Best Practice

- 51 Students of PG were made to attend a conference on Literary and Language Studies in the new Millennium at Loyola College Chennai which was held on 9th and 10th March 2023
- The department guided and supported 29 students from II M.A. to prepare research papers. They were given intense training and practice under the guidance of Rev. Fr. Dr. K.A. Maria Arockiaraj. The department organized rehearsal sessions to boost their confidence and to evaluate their performance. The professors gave them suggestions to improve and sharpen their language skills. Owing to the systematic training and efforts, the students presented their papers at the conference and received good reviews. They were appreciated and encouraged by the panel.

Donation of Books

- Books worth of 2,41,607 was donated to the College Library. In which 1,89,818 was spent for the department of English and 51,789 for the Department of History – The Budding Department.

Dept. Outing

As a dept., we went to Chennai Book Fair to buy books to donate to the college library.

Problems and Challenges

- Class Strength does not allow for activity-based English language skills training
- Students' attitude towards college studies and examinations seem to be low
- Students' confidence level is very low to expose themselves to the subject that lead them towards boredom, or confide with defense mechanism like heroism, irregular to the class, default violators of rules.
- The effect of family issues on the students.
- Too much of dependence on the staff for notes.
- Absenteeism

Disciplinary measures are too soft? or are we following them too closely?

Steps taken to Resolve them

- A seminar on motivation and personality development is scheduled regularly. Counselors from the dept. of Counseling psychology assist with the expertise.
- SHAPE programme helps professors to identify the students who lack interest, and aim. Counselors of the college help students with serious issues.
- Default violators are identified and help them to cope with the schedule
- Long absentees are notified to the parents by the class teachers over the phone and tackled with the interaction of HoD and the Parents.
- Remedial classes are organised for the slow learners pass.
- Enabling students to prepare the notes by themselves
- Library usage during the free hours for extra reference, make them know various authors and the books available for a particular subject.

THANK YOU

Mid Term Evaluation 2021-2022

The Research Forum, Department of History, has conducted 4 programmes in the academic year 2021-2022. The programmes aimed to introduce the students to the basics of research in general and historical research in particular.

Programme 1:

Research Forum, Department of History conducted a webinar titled "Understanding Women's History" through online on 24th July 2021. Dr. S. Jeevanandam, Assistant Professor, Department of History, Central University of Sikkim was the speaker. In his talk, at the very outset, he elaborated the emergence of history writing in the ancient time also stressed its features especially political events as the chief concern. Very recently in the twentieth century, the history writing underwent major changes from political to social and elite-cantered to ordinary masses and included many other aspects of human society such as women, labour, peasant and marginalized. He also stressed that the Women's Right Movement of the twentieth century forced the emergence of Gender History. He briefly explained various approaches to Gender History such as the Liberals, Socialist/Marxists and Radical. Students were participated with great enthusiastic and benefited in their understanding on the subject.

Programme 2:

Research Forum, Department of History conducted a webinar titled "Studying History of Technology: Some Examples from Colonial Madras Water Supply System" through online on 31stJuly 2021. Mr.Viswanathan Venkataraman PhD., Scholar, Centre for the History of Science, Technology and Medicine, King's College, London was the speaker. In his talk, he discussed about water supply in colonial Madras. For a long time, historians of the glob concentrated chiefly on the political affairs of human societies. While writing the politics of humans, historians sometime noted the other aspects of society such as social, economic, religious functioning without giving an adequate space to them.

Very recently many new subjects also included as part of the subject matter of history and one such is the history of technology.

It is not that the term technology is a new subject or phenomenon. What is new is that the scholars and historians began to concentrate writing the history of technology.

As I said technology is not a new thing. Since ancient time the human society witnessed several changes. All changes indicate the development of technology.

For example

1. Stone Age Period (Stone)
2. Invention of fire and Wheel
3. Metal age (Bronze, Copper and Iron)
4. Ship building from ancient to the modern time
5. In Modern time (Transportation and Communication tech)

Therefore, technology is inseparable part of human developments.

Programme 3:

Research Forum, Department of History conducted a webinar titled "Ignoring the Historical and Historicising the Ahistorical" through online mode on 18th September 2021. Dr. Srinivasa Rao Yenda Assistant Professor & Head Department of History Bharathidasan University, Trichy was the speaker; he delivered a lecture. This lecture was moderated by Dr. R. Govindaraj, Assistant Professor, Department of History, Sacred Heart College, Tirupattur.

Our guest speaker elaborately discussed how Historical theory, as a mode of theoretical criticism, engages in both descriptive and prescriptive readings of historiographic practices, with a view to interpreting and evaluating their meaning as epistemological moves. The speaker endeavoured to situate these practices within its own historical narrative with its own tales of rupture, revolution, and the loss of innocence. The speaker expressed concern over the prevalence of ahistorical attitude in history, historical development, or tradition, and also the development of historically inaccurate or ignorant ahistorical version of events. This lecture went over 1 hour and concluded with questions and answers. This lecture inspired many students from the department who attended the programme.

Programme 4:

Research Forum, Department of History conducted a webinar titled "The Mughals in Indian History" through online on 17th December 2021. Dr. K. Ashok Assistant Professor Department of History, Madras Christian College Chennai; he delivered a lecture. This lecture was moderated by Dr. R. Govindaraj, Assistant Professor, Department of History, Sacred Heart College, Tirupattur.

He highlighted the nature of the Mughal rule and the composite culture of the Mughals. The Mughal traditions highly influenced the palaces and forts of many regional and local kingdoms. He emphasized different viewpoints of various historians. The speaker differentiated the British colonialism from the Mughal rule and rid the commonly held false narratives about the Mughals being exploitative. This lecture went over 1 hour and concluded with questions and answers. This lecture inspired many students from the department who attended the programme.

Best Practice

- 51 Students of PG were made to attend a conference on Literary and Language Studies in the new Millennium at Loyola College Chennai which was held on 9th and 10th March 2023
- The department guided and supported 29 students from II M.A. to prepare research papers. They were given intense training and practice under the guidance of Rev. Fr. Dr. K.A. Maria Arockiaraj. The department organized rehearsal sessions to boost their confidence and to evaluate their performance. The professors gave them suggestions to improve and sharpen their language skills. Owing to the systematic training and efforts, the students presented their papers at the conference and received good reviews. They were appreciated and encouraged by the panel.

Donation of Books

- Books worth of 2,41,607 was donated to the College Library. In which 1,89,818 was spent for the department of English and 51,789 for the Department of History – The Budding Department.

Dept. Outing

As a dept., we went to Chennai Book Fair to buy books to donate to the college library.

Problems and Challenges

- Class Strength does not allow for activity-based English language skills training
- Students' attitude towards college studies and examinations seem to be low
- Students' confidence level is very low to expose themselves to the subject that lead them towards boredom, or confide with defense mechanism like heroism, irregular to the class, default violators of rules.
- The effect of family issues on the students.
- Too much of dependence on the staff for notes.
- Absenteeism

Disciplinary measures are too soft? or are we following them too closely?

Steps taken to Resolve them

- A seminar on motivation and personality development is scheduled regularly. Counselors from the dept. of Counseling psychology assist with the expertise.
- SHAPE programme helps professors to identify the students who lack interest, and aim. Counselors of the college help students with serious issues.
- Default violators are identified and help them to cope with the schedule
- Long absentees are notified to the parents by the class teachers over the phone and tackled with the interaction of HoD and the Parents.
- Remedial classes are organised for the slow learners pass.
- Enabling students to prepare the notes by themselves
- Library usage during the free hours for extra reference, make them know various authors and the books available for a particular subject.

Research Forum

Sacred Heart College (Autonomous), Tirupattur

Mid Term Evaluation 2021-2022

The Research Forum, Department of History, has conducted 4 programmes in the academic year 2021-2022. The programmes aimed to introduce the students to the basics of research in general and historical research in particular.

Programme 1:

Research Forum, Department of History conducted a webinar titled "Understanding Women's History" through online on 24th July 2021. Dr. S. Jeevanandam, Assistant Professor, Department of History, Central University of Sikkim was the speaker. In his talk, at the very outset, he elaborated the emergence of history writing in the ancient time also stressed its features especially political events as the chief concern. Very recently in the twentieth century, the history writing underwent major changes from political to social and elite-cantered to ordinary masses and included many other aspects of human society such as women, labour, peasant and marginalized. He also stressed that the Women's Right Movement of the twentieth century forced the emergence of Gender History. He briefly explained various approaches to Gender History such as the Liberals, Socialist/Marxists and Radical. Students were participated with great enthusiastic and benefited in their understanding on the subject.

Programme 2:

Research Forum, Department of History conducted a webinar titled "Studying History of Technology: Some Examples from Colonial Madras Water Supply System" through online on 31stJuly 2021. Mr.Viswanathan Venkataraman PhD., Scholar, Centre for the History of Science, Technology and Medicine, King's College, London was the speaker. In his talk, he discussed about water supply in colonial Madras. For a long time, historians of the glob concentrated chiefly on the political affairs of human societies. While writing the politics of humans, historians sometime noted the other aspects of society such as social, economic, religious functioning without giving an adequate space to them.

Very recently many new subjects also included as part of the subject matter of history and one such is the history of technology.

It is not that the term technology is a new subject or phenomenon. What is new is that the scholars and historians began to concentrate writing the history of technology.

As I said technology is not a new thing. Since ancient time the human society witnessed several changes. All changes indicate the development of technology.

For example

1. Stone Age Period (Stone)
2. Invention of fire and Wheel
3. Metal age (Bronze, Copper and Iron)
4. Ship building from ancient to the modern time
5. In Modern time (Transportation and Communication tech)

Therefore, technology is inseparable part of human developments.

Programme 3:

Research Forum, Department of History conducted a webinar titled "Ignoring the Historical and Historicising the Ahistorical" through online mode on 18th September 2021. Dr. Srinivasa Rao Yenda Assistant Professor & Head Department of History Bharathidasan University, Trichy was the speaker; he delivered a lecture. This lecture was moderated by Dr. R. Govindaraj, Assistant Professor, Department of History, Sacred Heart College, Tirupattur.

Our guest speaker elaborately discussed how Historical theory, as a mode of theoretical criticism, engages in both descriptive and prescriptive readings of historiographic practices, with a view to interpreting and evaluating their meaning as epistemological moves. The speaker endeavoured to situate these practices within its own historical narrative with its own tales of rupture, revolution, and the loss of innocence. The speaker expressed concern over the prevalence of ahistorical attitude in history, historical development, or tradition, and also the development of historically inaccurate or ignorant ahistorical version of events. This lecture went over 1 hour and concluded with questions and answers. This lecture inspired many students from the department who attended the programme.

Programme 4:

Ashok Assistant Professor Department of History, Madras Christian College Chennai; he delivered a lecture. This lecture was moderated by Dr. R. Govindaraj, Assistant Professor, Department of History, Sacred Heart College, Tirupattur.

He emphasized different viewpoints of various historians. The speaker differentiated the British colonialism from the Mughal rule and rid the commonly held false narratives about the Mughals being exploitative. This lecture went over 1 hour and concluded with questions and answers. This lecture inspired many students from the department who attended the programme.

11.Problems and Challenges

1. Poor Mathematical basics and communication skill of the students from School level due to COVID.
2. Non-cooperation of weak students.
3. Irregularity of students to the class.
4. Unwillingness of slow learners in writing tests.
5. Easy going attitude of students.
6. Strength of students (UG and PG) is low compared to the past years.
7. Lack of willingness among the first years to pursue the course.
8. Boy-Girl relationship
9. Lack of interest among students for PG Mathematics

Steps taken to resolve them:

1. To overcome the challenge of shifting of first years from one department to the other and discontinuing from the course, the department organized a session motivating the students and creating interest towards the course which was coordinated by Rev. Dr. T. Sathinathan.
2. To teach them basic concepts of Mathematics in an informal way, the department organized two days workshop covering the very basic concepts.
3. The workshop was organized on hour basis with lectures, videos and worksheets were given to the students to know their level of understanding.
4. This workshop made a remarkable change in the attitude of the students towards their interest of studying Mathematics.
5. Conducted a Special programme on “Healthy Boy-Girl Relationship” to aware the students about the relationship.
6. Created a good impact about our college in the nearby colleges preferably for PG admissions.
7. Collected short videos from our reputed alumni and shared among our final year students to create interest for Higher studies in our campus.
